Course Description

Join us in the enchanting world of "Cornish Pixie Pottery," where whimsy meets tradition in the heart of Cornwall. Led by the delightful Ceramic Cedric, this class invites adults to explore the heritage craft of pottery with a playful twist. Students will delve into the basics of pottery making, learning how to shape clay using traditional Cornish techniques that have been passed down through generations. Participants will immerse themselves in the lore and legends of Cornwall, drawing inspiration from pixies, giants, and mermaids to create their own unique pottery designs. The class will cover essential skills such as using a potter's wheel, mastering hand-building techniques, and understanding glazing and firing processes. Students will also gain insight into the cultural significance of pottery in Cornwall, enriching their appreciation of this heritage craft. In a joyous, creative atmosphere, students will produce charming pottery pieces that reflect their individual style and the magic of Cornish folklore. Whether it's a pixie-themed mug or a mermaid plate, each creation will be a testament to the students' newfound skills and creativity. With all materials provided, including clay, access to a kiln, and design templates, "Cornish Pixie Pottery" promises a memorable journey into craftsmanship and cultural exploration.
