Course Description

Welcome to 'Enchanted Yarn Spinning: From Sheep to Sheepish,' where you'll embark on a magical journey of transformation—from fluffy, baa-ing beginnings to mystical, hand-crafted creations. Under the whimsical guidance of Miss Tilly Twirls, a seasoned spinner known for her lyrical looms and enchanted threads, you'll learn the ancient and whimsical art of yarn spinning. Held in the idyllic countryside of Devon, this class begins with a gentle introduction to the woolly world of fibers. You will meet your raw material in its natural state and discover the secrets of selecting the finest fleece. With your drop spindle in hand, you'll practice the ancient skill of spinning, delighting in the creation of your own skein of yarn. As you progress, you'll master the more advanced techniques of the spinning wheel, watching as your yarn takes on a life of its own. The magic continues as you explore the alchemy of natural dyes. You'll learn to concoct vibrant hues from local plants and flowers, infusing your yarns with the colors of the Devonshire landscape. Finally, you'll integrate these skills to create a unique, enchanted skein of yarn that captures your personal style. Whether you're a seasoned crafter or a complete novice, this playful and educational class will leave you with a newfound appreciation for the wonder of fiber arts and a skein of yarn that captures the whimsical spirit of the enchanted countryside.
