Course Description

Join Drizzle McBrush in the enchanting city of Canterbury for 'Whimsical Watercolours: Painting with Puddles', a delightful exploration of art through nature's own palette. This playful class invites adults to step out of the conventional studio and into the vibrant, ever-changing canvas provided by puddles. Participants will learn how to use rain-enhanced landscapes as their medium, harnessing the reflections and refractions in puddles to create unique artwork. With the guidance of Drizzle, students will explore colour theory by observing how light interacts with water, gaining insights into the delicate dance of shades and hues. As you dabble and dash in puddles, you will develop creative problem-solving skills, learning to adapt to the changing conditions of your outdoor environment. The course emphasizes mindfulness, encouraging students to immerse themselves in the moment, focusing on the gentle ripples and reflections that inspire their brush strokes. Equipped with waterproof sketch pads and artistic ponchos, students will also cultivate a playful approach to artistic experimentation, embracing the whimsical unpredictability of puddle painting. Dive into this joyful pursuit and discover how the simplicity of puddles can unleash your creative spirit and nourish your soul.
