Course Description

Step into the mysterious world of gargoyle sculpting with Professor Granville Gargoyle as your guide. This whimsical yet enlightening class, held in the scenic landscapes of Devon, invites you to delve into the fascinating history and artistry of gargoyles, those mischievous stone creatures perched atop ancient architecture. Discover their role in Gothic design and their whimsical impact on culture as protectors and storytellers. Under Professor Gargoyle's tutelage, you'll learn the basics of sculpting with clay, focusing on creating intricate designs that capture the quirky essence of gargoyles. Students will practice the art of detail orientation, developing skills to create symmetry and unique features in their sculptures. Unleash your creativity as you design your very own gargoyle, infusing personality and flair into its stony visage. Finish your creations with a stone-texture spray to give them an authentic gothic appearance, and take home a historical reference guide to continue your explorations. Whether you're a creative soul or a history enthusiast, this class promises a blend of artistry and playful learning that will leave you enchanted and eager to craft even more creepy-cute companions for your garden or mantelpiece.
