Course Description

Join our Autumnal Pop-Up Pumpkin Palooza, where the air is crisp and creativity is ripe! Led by Gourdie Gourd, a connoisseur of all things pumpkin, this class transports students into a world where pumpkins aren't just for Halloween. Situated in the heart of Edinburgh's vibrant fall scenery, students will first learn the delicate art of pumpkin carving, moving beyond simple jack-o'-lanterns to create works of art that can stand proudly on any autumnal mantelpiece. Once the carving tools are expertly handled, students will switch gears to the kitchen, using pumpkins to craft delightful seasonal recipes ranging from spicy pumpkin soup to tangy pumpkin chutney. Gourdie Gourd will share secrets behind the cultural significance of pumpkins and their journey through history, enriching students' appreciation for these orange wonders. The class continues with decorative arts, as participants use natural elements like twigs, leaves, and acorns to fashion exquisite autumnal home décor. To wrap up, students will let their imaginations soar with creative storytelling sessions, inspired by pumpkin folklore from around the world. By the end of this whimsical workshop, you'll have a new set of skills and a heart full of autumnal cheer!
