Course Description

Step into the magical world of medieval candle making, where every flicker tells a story and every scent carries the wisdom of the ages. In this enchanting class, led by the illustrious Lady Luminary, you will explore the art of crafting candles using time-honored techniques and materials reminiscent of bygone eras. Perfect for those yearning to add a touch of history to their modern lives, this class promises a delightful journey through the aromatic realms of beeswax and spices. Participants will begin by delving into the fascinating history of candle making, learning about its significance in medieval rituals and day-to-day life. You will then get hands-on experience crafting your own candles, using traditional moulds to shape beeswax into pieces of art. As the class progresses, Lady Luminary will guide you through the captivating process of scent infusion, allowing you to personalize your creations with unique blends of herbs and spices. To add a whimsical twist, students will also learn candle carving techniques, embossing their creations with intricate designs that evoke the elegance of medieval manuscripts. By the end of the session, you'll master the art of setting the perfect mood with your bespoke candles, illuminating both your home and spirit with a glow that is truly magical. Join us in Cornwall for an unforgettable journey into the world of Medieval Candle Magic for the Modern Soul.
