Course Description

Dive into the enchanting world of autumn with "Seasonal Leaf Juggling and Story Weaving," where adults can escape the mundane and embrace the whimsical side of nature. Led by the spirited Maple Twirlworthy, this class unfolds in the vibrant surroundings of Brighton's parks, capturing the essence of the changing season. Participants will begin by gathering a variety of colorful leaves, which will then be used as unconventional juggling props. Maple will guide students through the basics of juggling, focusing on hand-eye coordination while introducing them to playful leaf tricks. As the leaves dance in the air, students will learn to weave imaginative stories inspired by the unique shapes and colors of their airborne companions. Through engaging exercises, participants will craft narratives that reflect the beauty and mystery of autumn, learning to blend visual creativity with the power of words. This class promises not only to enrich your skill set but also to nourish your soul with joy and laughter, as you explore the magical intersection of nature and storytelling. A delightful seasonal snack and warm beverages will be provided to complement the cozy autumn atmosphere, ensuring a memorable experience that both educates and entertains.
