Course Description

Join us at the School of Dandori in the enchanting gardens of Harrogate for "Gnome Knots and Garden Magic", a delightful outdoor skills class that combines the art of knot tying with the whimsical world of garden design. Under the expert guidance of Professor Petalweaver, an aficionado of all things botanical and magical, you'll embark on a journey to transform your garden into a place of wonder and delight. Over the course of the day, you'll explore various practical knotting techniques used in gardening, from securing climbing plants with a reef knot to creating sturdy trellises with a bowline. As you work your way through these essential skills, you'll also delve into the lore of the garden, uncovering the stories and superstitions behind your favourite flowers and herbs. Equipped with a sketch pad and a creative spirit, you'll draft your own garden layouts, incorporating both practical plant placements and whimsical touches like fairy paths and gnome havens. With a plant identification guide in hand, you'll learn to spot native plants and integrate them into your designs for a truly local touch. Finally, unleash your inner artist with a selection of paints to craft charming garden decorations, ensuring your personal patch of green is as delightful as it is functional. This class is perfect for adults eager to infuse their outdoor spaces with both practical know-how and a pinch of magic.
