Course Description

Immerse yourself in the rich tapestry of Viking culture with our 'Enchanted Viking Beard Braiding' class, where you will not only learn a unique set of grooming skills but also dive into the fascinating history of Nordic warriors. Held in the picturesque town of Inverness, guided by the famed Bjorn Tanglebeard, known for his expertise in ancient beard styling, this class offers a delightful blend of history and personal expression. Students will begin with a captivating introduction to the significance of beards in Viking lore, learning why these facial adornments were more than just a style statement. With a practical focus, Bjorn will guide you through a variety of braiding techniques suited specifically for beard hair, ensuring even the wispiest whiskers can sport a regal braid. You'll receive a beard grooming kit complete with organic oils to nourish your hair, and decorative beads and charms for personalization. As you weave, twist, and adorn your facial hair, you'll gain valuable skills in both personal grooming and creative expression. The class promises not only a practical skill set but also a fun-filled journey through history, encouraging you to connect deeply with your inner Viking. Prepare yourself for an afternoon of laughter, learning, and leaving with a beard that tells its own heroic tale!
