Course Description

Join Professor Plaid McLoom in the scenic Scottish Highlands for a whimsical journey into the world of tartan weaving, where legends and looms intertwine. During this enchanting day-long class, students will delve into the rich tapestry of Scotland's cultural heritage while learning the ancient art of tartan weaving. Under the watchful guidance of the spirited Professor McLoom, you'll start with the basics of using a traditional hand loom, mastering the rhythmic dance of shuttle and warp.

Participants will be guided through the history and lore of tartans, including the mystical tales of the Loch Ness Monster, also known locally as Nessie. With hands-on practice, each student will have the opportunity to create their very own mini tartan design, imbued with personal significance and a touch of Highland magic. The class will also explore tartan patterns' symbolic meanings and how clans once used them to tell stories of lineage and legend. By the end of the day, you'll weave not just threads but a newfound appreciation for Scotland's vibrant history. Plus, enjoy a cup of fragrant Highland heather tea as you relax and admire your handiwork. Embrace your inner Scotsman or Scotswoman in this unique blend of craft and cultural exploration.
