Course Description

Join Gertie McGnome for a delightful day of gnome gathering in the enchanting Scottish Highlands. This whimsical class invites adults to step into a world of imagination and creativity, where they'll learn to blend folklore with practical gardening skills. Gertie, a seasoned expert in gnome habitats, will guide students through the process of crafting miniature garden landscapes using local natural materials. Participants will gather stones, moss, and twigs to design cozy homes for their tiny mythical friends. As they create, Gertie will share captivating tales of Highland folklore, inspiring students to weave their own stories. The class emphasizes environmental awareness, teaching attendees about the rich biodiversity of the Highlands and the importance of preserving these magical ecosystems. Participants will also enhance their teamwork skills through collaborative projects, building communal gnome villages that reflect the beauty of nature. By the end of the session, students will have crafted their own gnome gardens and learned storytelling techniques, leaving with a deeper appreciation for the natural world and a sense of playful wonder. Whether you're a seasoned gardener or a curious beginner, 'Highland Gnome Gathering with Gertie' promises an unforgettable experience that nourishes the soul and brings joy to your everyday life.
