

Medieval Banter and Bard Building

Instructor:

Sir Lyric Lancelot

Location:

Harrogate

Course Type:

Traditional Skills

Cost:

£75.00

Learning Objectives

- Learn the art of crafting humorous limericks and ballads
- Understand the basics of medieval jesting techniques
- Develop skills in performing playful medieval skits
- Explore historical context of medieval entertainment
- Gain confidence in public speaking through jesting

Provided Materials

- Feather quills and parchment for song writing
- A collection of medieval instruments (lute, mandolin)
- Costume pieces for theatrical performances
- Guidebook on medieval jesting and humor
- Props for creating comedic scenes

Skills Developed

Creative Writing

Performance Arts

Historical Understanding

Public Speaking

Comedy

Course Description

Step into the world of medieval merriment with the School of Dandori's 'Medieval Banter and Bard Building' class, led by the illustrious Sir Lyric Lancelot. Located in the charming town of Harrogate, this class offers a delightful escape into the playful world of medieval entertainment, where adults can unleash their inner bard through a whimsical yet educational journey. Participants will delve into the art of crafting humorous limericks and ballads, exploring the nuances of medieval jesting and honing their skills in creating playful skits. The course combines historical insights with practical performance techniques, allowing students to understand the cultural significance of medieval jesters and entertainers. Throughout the class, students will work with feather quills and parchment to write their own songs, engage in interactive performances using traditional instruments like the lute and mandolin, and dress in costume pieces to bring their comedic characters to life. The curriculum includes creating props and scenes that are sure to tickle the funny bone of any audience. This class not only teaches the artistry of medieval jesting and bard building but also builds confidence in public speaking and creative expression. Whether you're seeking a jovial escape from the mundane or looking to enhance your performance skills, 'Medieval Banter and Bard Building' promises laughter, learning, and a touch of whimsy for all who join its merry ranks.

Class ID: CLASS_5726 | School of Dandori

For more information, visit our imaginary website or contact our fictional admissions office.