Course Description

Join Professor Willow Twiggle at the School of Dandori in Harrogate for an immersive journey into the mystical world of wand-making, a heritage craft that blends folklore with creative woodworking. This enchanting class invites adults to explore the art of crafting their very own magical wands, inspired by centuries of tradition and whimsy. During this whimsical session, participants will delve into the rich history of wand-making, discovering its roots in ancient lore and the magical properties attributed to different types of wood. You'll have the chance to select your own sustainably sourced wooden stick, each with its unique character and potential. Under Professor Twiggle's playful guidance, students will learn basic wood carving techniques to shape their chosen wand, adding intricate designs using mystical symbol stencils. Discover the fascinating meanings behind each symbol and decide which resonates best with your personal magical intentions. To complete the transformation from stick to wand, participants will paint and embellish their creations, imbuing them with intention and positive energy. By the end of the class, you'll leave with a beautifully crafted wand that not only reflects your individual flair but also serves as a tangible reminder of the power of creativity and imagination in everyday life. Whether you're a novice or a seasoned craftsman, this class will spark joy and creativity in your soul, leaving you excited and refreshed.
