Throughout this one-day workshop, you'll learn to identify the choicest willow branches along a serene riverside walk, understanding their unique properties and historical uses in folklore. Back in our cozy craft lodge, you will weave your own willow wand, using age-old techniques passed down through generations. Professor Twigg will share tales of wand lore and tips on how to imbue your wand with personal enchantments drawn from the natural world. The class will also explore various natural dyes and beeswax finishes to personalize your wand, transforming it into a unique piece of art.
