Course Description

Welcome to the Enchanted Quill Crafting and Scroll Scribing class, where ancient skills meet modern whimsy! Guided by the illustrious Quill Master Penelope, students will embark on a delightful journey to rediscover the art of crafting quills and scribing scrolls. Set in the enchanting city of Brighton, this class invites adults to step away from the mundanity of everyday life and immerse themselves in the magical world of heritage crafts. Participants will learn how to transform feathers of various birds into elegant writing tools using traditional techniques. Quill Master Penelope will then lead the group through the alchemical process of creating natural inks from berries, roots, and other mystical ingredients, ensuring every stroke of their quill is vibrant and authentic. With their handcrafted quills and inks, students will dive into the decorative art of scroll scribing. Using handmade parchment scrolls, they will explore both historical and whimsical writing styles, practicing flourishes and ornate designs. Beyond crafting skills, participants will gain insight into the historical significance of quill writing, understanding its role in communication before digital times. This journey culminates in creative writing exercises, where imagination flows as freely as ink. Whether crafting love letters or epic tales, this class will enchant and educate, leaving students with newfound skills and joy.
