Course Description

Step into the enchanting world of quill and ink wizardry under the guidance of Professor Parchment Featherbottom, a renowned expert in the ancient art of penmanship. Located in the idyllic setting of Inverness, this whimsical heritage craft class invites adults to immerse themselves in the delightful and slightly silly pursuit of quill writing. Upon arrival, students will be provided with hand-carved quill pens and bowls brimming with natural ingredients to concoct their very own magical inks. Delve into the historical significance of quill writing in Britain, as Professor Featherbottom shares fascinating tales of scribes and scrolls from eras gone by. Participants will master the delicate techniques of quill handling and explore whimsical calligraphy scripts, allowing them to pen enchanting messages and designs. Through step-by-step guidance, students will develop their skills and create personalized parchment scrolls that capture the essence of their inner wordsmith. Whether crafting poetic love letters or drafting mysterious maps, each scroll becomes a unique testament to the joy and creativity derived from this age-old practice. Beyond the practical skills, students will leave with a newfound appreciation for the historical craft and the satisfaction of having rekindled their creative spark. Join us for an unforgettable experience designed to nourish the soul and bring laughter and learning into your life.
