Course Description

Step into the enchanting world of Victorian Britain with our 'Victorian Pumpkin Carving: From Sombre to Splendid' class. Led by the renowned Professor Gourdly, this session in Glasgow will transport you back to a time when artists found beauty in even the simplest gourds. Begin with a dive into the historical significance of pumpkins in 19th-century Britain, unraveling their role in autumn festivities and daily life. Under Professor Gourdly's guidance, you'll master intricate carving techniques inspired by Victorian designs, transforming ordinary pumpkins into extraordinary pieces of art. Discover the art of creating illuminating candle displays within your carved creations, adding a touch of Victorian mystery to your autumn décor. As an added bonus, learn delicious and crafty uses for pumpkin seeds and pulp, turning waste into wonders. By the end of the class, you'll have the skills to host your own Victorian-themed pumpkin carving soirée, a perfect blend of art, history, and festivity. Whether you're a seasoned artist or a curious beginner, this whimsical yet educational class promises to fill your autumn with joy and creativity.
