Course Description

Join us at the School of Dandori for 'The Joyful Jumble: Patchwork of Positivity,' a heartwarming class designed to thread creativity and joy into your daily life. Under the expert guidance of Miss Tessa Tapestry, a renowned fabric storyteller, you will embark on a whimsical journey of sewing and self-expression. In this enchanting fiber arts class, adults will discover the therapeutic art of patchworking, where each fabric square represents a different emotion or memory. Students will learn to sew these pieces into a vibrant quilt, reflecting the tapestry of their lives. With pre-cut fabric squares in every shade of the rainbow, participants will explore the textures and hues that resonate with their personal stories. Through hands-on instruction, you'll master the delicate art of sewing, using provided needles and threads to stitch together a patchwork that's uniquely yours. You'll also delve into the fascinating history of patchworking, gaining insights into its cultural significance across the globe. This class is perfect for those looking to cultivate patience, share stories, and unwind. By the end, each participant will have created a beautiful, personal quilt piece to cherish. Whether you're a seasoned sewer or a complete novice, this class will leave you feeling inspired, connected, and ready to weave joy into your everyday life.
