Course Description

Dive into the whimsical world of yarn spinning, where threads of time and magic intertwine! Led by the illustrious Professor Twizzle Bobbin, this enchanting course will take you on a journey through history, teaching you the ancient art of spinning yarn while infusing it with your own unique touch. Perfect for adults seeking to escape the mundane, this class is set in the charming locale of Exeter, amidst the cozy confines of School of Dandori. From the Egyptians' flax to the Vikings' wool, uncover the secrets of spinning yarn as you learn to operate a spinning wheel with precision. You'll explore techniques across eras, discovering how to imbue your yarn with colors inspired by nature's palette and mystical recipes. Participants will become adept at recognizing high-quality fibers, choosing materials that speak to them. Through storytelling and hands-on practice, you'll not only create yarn but spin tales woven with history. This course provides all necessary materials, including a spinning wheel, a curated selection of fibrous wonders, and vibrant dyes that promise to add a touch of magic to your creations. Enjoy breaks with tea and biscuits, allowing your creativity to flow freely as you connect with fellow time-traveling yarn enthusiasts. By the end of the class, you'll leave with your own enchanted skein, reflective of your journey through the ages, and the skills to continue spinning your way into an endless tapestry of possibilities.
