Course Description

Join us in the heart of the Peak District for a day of delightfully peculiar artistry with our "Surrealist Potion Painting" class. Dive into a world where potions and pigments collide, guided by the eccentric Professor Artimus Splatter, known for his whimsical approach to the creative arts. In this class, you will explore how to create stunning paintings using homemade potions crafted from vibrant pigments distilled from the local flora. These concoctions offer a mesmerizing array of textures and effects, bringing a new dimension to your artwork. You will begin by learning the basics of potion preparation, carefully mixing colours to produce vivid hues and gradients. Then, embrace the principles of surrealism as you experiment with different brush techniques to create dreamlike landscapes and abstract forms that capture the imagination. Engage not just sight, but also smell and touch, as aromatic oils are blended into your potions, enhancing the sensory experience. Throughout the session, you'll receive guidance on applying colour theory and expressive brushwork, all while cultivating an appreciation for the historical context of surrealist art. The creative environment encourages you to unleash your unique artistic voice. Leave with a completed canvas brimming with personality and an invigorated sense of creativity that you can incorporate into your daily life. Whether you're a seasoned artist or a curious beginner, the Surrealist Potion Painting class will enchant and inspire.
