Course Description

Step into the world of Fantastical Felted Creature Crafting, where imagination meets skillful artistry under the tutelage of Fiona Fluffweaver, Windsor's very own fiber arts aficionado. This whimsical class invites you to delve into the enchanting realm of felt crafting, transforming simple materials into delightful, spirited creatures that spring to life with character and charm. Over the course of the session, students will learn the basics of felting techniques, from needle control to shaping fibers. Fiona will guide you through the process of conceptualizing your own fantastical creature, encouraging you to explore unique textures, vibrant colors, and playful designs. Whether you envision a cheeky gnome, a mischievous dragon, or a cuddly monster, you'll discover the joy of bringing your creation to life. Beyond crafting skills, you'll engage in storytelling exercises, allowing your creature to develop a backstory and personality that adds depth to your art. This hands-on experience is not only about mastering a new skill but also about finding tranquility and joy through creativity. Join us to cultivate a sense of wonder and whimsy, and take home a felted friend that will surely spark smiles and stories for years to come. Fiona Fluffweaver ensures that every participant leaves with a pocketful of happiness and a masterpiece crafted from the heart.
